Dear Henry:

Referring to my letter of 31 July 1984 in which we forwarded the Agency determination regarding material proposed for inclusion in Foreign Relations of the United States, 1955-57, Vietnam, we have again reviewed the decision on 510 VM 129 and 510 VM 130. During the discussion of the letter with Phillip Manhart of your office and David Maybon of the Historical Office, we unofficially suggested the possibility of using "Saigon Military Mission Files" as the source. Mr. Maybon checked back with his office and determined that this citation for provenance was acceptable. With this acceptance, we were then able to obtain the approval of the concerned directorate within the Agency.

Mr. Maybon was advised by telephone of the authorization to use "Saigon Military Mission Files" as the source in both the above cited documents. I am very pleased that we were again able to work together in arriving at a solution which is completely acceptable to both of us.

Sincerely,

Chief, Classification Review Division
